Department of Economics

Financial economics – assistant professor

The Department of Economics at the University of Toronto Mississauga campus invites applications for a tenure-stream appointment in financial economics at the rank of Assistant Professor. The appointment will be effective July 1, 2014.

Duties include undergraduate and graduate teaching in the advertised field, research and graduate supervision. The candidate must have evidence of excellence in research and teaching, and have earned a Ph.D. degree or equivalent by July 1, 2014 or soon thereafter.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

All qualified candidates are invited to apply by visiting www.economics.utoronto.ca/apply. Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including a statement of teaching philosophy), and a statement outlining current and future research interests. If you have questions about this position, please contact a.shoebridge@utoronto.ca. All application materials must be submitted online: submission guidelines can be found at www.economics.utoronto.ca/apply. The deadline for applications is November 24, 2013.

Information about the University of Toronto Mississauga Undergraduate Economics Department is available at www.utm.utoronto.ca/academic/eco/ and information about the Graduate Economics Department located at the St. George campus is available at www.economics.utoronto.ca.

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
