

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
Department of Economics and School of Public Policy and Governance

Economics – Urban Economics

The Department of Economics and the School of Public Policy and Governance at the University of Toronto St. George campus invite applications for a joint tenure-stream appointment in Urban Economics at the rank of Assistant Professor. The appointment will be effective July 1, 2014.

The successful candidate must have evidence of excellence in research and teaching in urban economics, and have earned a Ph.D. degree or equivalent by July 1, 2014 or soon thereafter. Duties include undergraduate and graduate teaching and research.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The successful applicant will hold a joint appointment between the Department of Economics (51%) and the School of Public Policy and Governance (49%).

Applications should be submitted online at www.economics.utoronto.ca/apply. A completed application will include a curriculum vitae, one or more working paper, and three letters of reference. The deadline for applications is November 24, 2013. Please note that paper applications will not be accepted.

For more information about the Department of Economics and the School of Public Policy and Governance at the University of Toronto St. George campus, please visit our home pages at <http://www.economics.utoronto.ca> and <http://www.publicpolicy.utoronto.ca>, respectively.

The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.