ECO 201Y1: READINGS for Fall Term, Sept - Dec 2003

As was stressed in the course outline, this is not a text-book course; and therefore there are no prescribed textbooks for which you will be responsible on the final examination. I did, however, recommend the following books, which would appear to be standard textbooks, as supplementary aids to guide you in what are the prescribed readings for the course, and in the lectures. The most important are:

- (1) Carlo M. Cipolla, Before the Industrial Revolution: European Society and Economy, 1000 1700, 3rd edition (London and New York, 1994). HC 240 C49513 1994
- (2) Ralph Davis, The Rise of the Atlantic Economies, World Economic History series (London: Weidenfeld and Nicholson, 1973). In paperback: 352 pp. HC 240 D32.
- (3) Peter Musgrave, The Early Modern European Economy, European History in Perspective Series (Basingstoke: MacMillans; and New York: St. Martin's Press, 1999). HC 240 .M793 1999X.

Prescribed Readings:

You are instead expected to do some of the readings for the FIVE "A" LIST TOPICS, selected for the Fall Term of 2003 as the primary essay topics, for this year. All five of these topics will appear on the mid-year test and also on the final examination. Therefore, in reading the following essays and journal articles, you will be doing the major research preparations for both your first term essay and for these examinations. Although the accompanying short-format bibliographies for these five topics do list current journal articles, the following package of readings does not necessarily contain such articles. I have chosen those articles and essays, chiefly older ones, that have proved to be seminal or of at least major importance in inspiring or in guiding the debates for the themes in these selected essay topics. Many recent articles are, of course, just partial responses to earlier articles on these debates, or contributions in minor areas of these debates.

This package of readings has been prepared by me (who did the photocopying) and by:

Scholar House Productions 100 Harbord Street Toronto, Ontario M5S 1G6

phone: (416) 977 - 9641 fax: (416) 977 - 0147

e-mail: lynds@scholar-house.on.ca or sales@scholar-house.on.ca

For the Fall term of 2003, this package is priced at $55.00 (about the same as last year). The price of each set is reckoned as follows: $0.050 per published page, for copyright searches and royalties, which sum goes to Access (The Canadian Copyright Licensing Agency), plus $0.045 per duplicated sheet (8.5 by 11), with two published pages per sheet, plus the cost of binding. The major cost, therefore, is in securing the services of Access to obtain copyright permissions for reproductions, while paying the necessary fees or royalties for doing so. In photocopying the essays and articles I have ensured that each duplicated sheet contains two printed pages.
