

Instructor: Professor Diego Restuccia

Office: Max Gluskin House (150 St. George Street), Room 201

Office hours: M 5-6pm

E-mail: diego.restuccia@utoronto.ca

Lectures: M 3-5pm GE 100

Overview:

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to a selected set of frontier research on growth and (the macro aspects of) development. Lectures will provide empirical motivations for the selected topics and introduce/discuss key papers/model frameworks in the literature. The main objective of this course is to apply economic theory to understand and interpret empirical observations on economic development and growth. In this course, we will study in detail the ability of theoretical models to account for the empirical facts characterizing economic development and growth over time and across countries. Students are expected to read all the papers that will be presented in class and participate actively in class discussions.

Course Work and Grading:

The final grade will be determined as follows: Paper presentation (30%), class participation (20%) and a two-hour final exam (50%). No other work will count towards your final grade.

E-mail Policy:

In my experience, e-mail is not the most effective means for discussing economics, office hours are more appropriate. I will endeavour to reply to e-mail within 24 hours, except on weekends. I will only respond to e-mails from utoronto accounts and that are clearly identified as ECO2704 in the subject line.

Pre-requisites and academic integrity will be strictly enforced.
