ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please make it a habit of checking the Course Blackboard site and the Economics Department website for current announcements regarding courses (i.e. class cancellations).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The practical application of microeconomic theory to common legal problems: torts, contracts, property and crime, and the limitations of economic analysis. No previous familiarity with the law is assumed. (This is an economic analysis of legal issues, not a course in law.) Prerequisite: ECO200Y1/ECO204Y1/ECO206Y1. The Department has a clear policy on pre-requisites for courses which may be obtained at <https://www.economics.utoronto.ca/index.php/index/undergraduate/load/prerequisites>

REQUIRED TEXT:

Cooter and Ulen, Law & Economics, 6th ed., Addison-Wesley (Pearson), Toronto, Canada, 2011, ISBN: 978-0-13-25-4065-0

MARKING SCHEME:

Practice Test (Monday, September 25, 2017)
Term Test 1 (Monday, October 16, 2017)	25%
Term Test 2 (Monday, November 13, 2017)	25%
Final Exam	50%

LECTURES:

Students will be responsible for all the material presented at each lecture and tutorial. Students should be advised that much of the material covered at the lectures will be additional to the required readings and the power point slides. All of the lecture and tutorial material, slides and required readings is eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination.

TUTORIALS:

The first tutorial will be on Monday, September 11, 2017. There will be a tutorial each Monday thereafter to the end of the course. There will be no tutorials on Thanksgiving Monday, October 9, 2017 and during the Fall Reading Week, Monday, November 6, 2017. Most tutorials will be a question and answer session for problems assigned for discussion in the prior week. The tutorials on Monday, September 25, 2017, Monday, October 16, 2017 and Monday, November 13, 2017 will be for the term tests.

READINGS:

Students will be responsible for the readings from the required Text and Articles unless expressly excluded by the Instructor. Many of the readings from the Text may not be covered in the limited time available for lectures. This does not mean these readings are unimportant or cannot be included in the term tests and final examination. All of the lecture material, slides and required readings are eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination. The articles are obtainable from the U of T library website.

MISSED TERM TESTS:

One (1) Comprehensive Make Up test will be held on Monday, December 4, 2017. This test will cover the entire course, regardless of whether or not the student missed either Test 1 or Test 2.

Absence from the regularly scheduled tests will only be excused for serious illness, notified to the instructor no later than the next class after the test. The student must have his or her doctor fully complete the University of Toronto Verification of Student Illness or Injury form. The website, <http://www.illnessverification.utoronto.ca>, has a useful "FAQ". The instructor will only accept original notes (not scanned, copied, or emailed) from the student in person at class, the tutorial or office hours. The form must be completed by a qualified medical doctor or nurse practitioner (e.g., not an acupuncturist, chiropractor, or other health care professional). The University provides academic accommodations for students with disabilities in accordance with the terms of the Ontario Human Rights Code. If you require accommodation, get in touch with Accessibility Services as soon as possible: <http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/>.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Copying, plagiarizing, or other forms of academic misconduct will not be tolerated. Any student caught engaging in such activities will be subject to academic discipline ranging from a mark of zero on the assignment, test or examination to dismissal from the university as outlined in the academic calendar. Any student abetting or otherwise assisting in such misconduct will also be subject to academic penalties. As a student it is your responsibility to ensure the integrity of your work and to understand what constitutes an academic offence. If you have any concerns that you may be crossing the line, always ask your instructor. Your instructor can explain, for example, the nuances of plagiarism and how to use secondary sources appropriately; he or she will also tell you what kinds of aids -- calculators, dictionaries, etc. -- are permitted in a test or exam. Ignorance of the rules does not excuse cheating or plagiarism. For more information regarding the Code of Behaviour please see the Academic Calendar.
