ANNOUNCEMENTS AND BLACKBOARD

This course uses the University's learning management system, Blackboard Learn, to post information about the course. This includes materials required to complete class activities and course assignments as well as share important announcements and updates. The site is dynamic and new information and resources will be posted regularly as we move through the term. The principal source of information about all course-related work will be the course site in Blackboard, so please make it a habit to log in to the site on a regular if not daily basis. To access the course website, go to the U of T Portal log-in page at <http://portal.utoronto.ca> and log in using your UTORid and password. Once you have logged in to the Portal using your UTORid and password, look for the "My Courses" module where you will find a link to the Economic Analysis of Law, ECO320H1, LEC 0101 course site. Note that if you are currently enrolled in other courses at the University, your other course links will also appear here. Click on the Economic Analysis of Law, ECO320H1, LEC 0101 link to open our course area and view the latest announcements and updates, and access your course resources. Additional information on how to navigate the course materials in Blackboard can be found at the end of this syllabus. SPECIAL NOTE ABOUT GRADES POSTED ONLINE: Please note that any grades posted within the Blackboard Grade Centre are posted for your information only, so you can view and track your progress through the course. No grades are considered official, included any posted in Blackboard at any point in the term, until they have been formally approved by me at the end of the course. Please contact me as soon as possible if you think there is an error in any grade posted on blackboard.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The practical application of microeconomic theory to common legal problems: torts, contracts, property and crime, and the limitations of economic analysis. No previous familiarity with the law is assumed. (This is an economic analysis of legal issues, not a course in law.) Prerequisite: ECO200Y1/ECO204Y1/ECO206Y1. The Department has a clear policy on pre-requisites for courses which may be obtained at <https://www.economics.utoronto.ca/index.php/index/undergraduate/load/prerequisites>

REQUIRED TEXT:

Cooter and Ulen, Law & Economics, 6th ed., Addison-Wesley (Pearson), Toronto, Canada, 2011, ISBN: 978-0-13-25-4065-0
<http://scholarship.law.berkeley.edu/books/2/>

MARKING SCHEME:

Term Test 1 (Monday, July 23, 2018)	25%
Term Test 2 (Wednesday, August 8, 2018)	25%
Final Exam	50%

LECTURES:

Students will be responsible for all the material presented at each lecture and tutorial. Students should be advised that much of the material covered at the lectures will be additional to the required readings and the power point slides. All of the lecture and tutorial material, slides and required readings is eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination.

TUTORIALS:

The first tutorial will be on Monday, July 9, 2018. There will be a tutorial each Monday and Wednesday after the Lecture to the end of the course. Most tutorials will be a question and answer session for problems assigned for discussion in the prior week. The tutorials on Monday, July 23, 2018, Wednesday, August 8, 2018 and Tuesday, August 14, 2018 will be for the term tests at 2:10PM to 3:00PM.

READINGS:

Students will be responsible for the readings from the required Text and Articles unless expressly excluded by the Instructor. Many of the readings from the Text may not be covered in the limited time available for lectures. This does not mean these readings are unimportant or cannot be included in the term tests and final examination. All the lecture material, slides and required readings are eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination. The articles are obtainable from the U of T library website.

MISSED TERM TESTS:

One (1) Comprehensive Make Up test will be held on Monday, August 13, 2018. This test will cover the topics of both Tests 1 and 2, regardless the student missing either Test 1 or Test 2.

SPECIFIC MEDICAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If you become ill and it affects your ability to do your academic work, consult me right away. Normally, I will ask you for medical documentation in support of your specific medical circumstances. The University's Verification of Student Illness or Injury (VOI) form is recommended because it indicates the impact and severity of the illness, while protecting your privacy about the details of the nature of the illness. You can submit a different form (like a letter from the doctor), as long as it is an original document, and it contains the same information as the VOI. For more information, please see <http://www.illnessverification.utoronto.ca/> If you get a concussion, break your hand, or suffer some other acute injury, you should register with Accessibility Services as soon as possible.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONAL REASONS

There may be times when you are unable to complete course work on time due to non-medical reasons. If you have concerns, speak to me. It is also a very good idea to speak with an advisor in your College Registrar's office; they can support you in requesting extensions or accommodations, and importantly, connect you with other resources on campus for help with your situation.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students, faculty and staff are expected to follow the University's guidelines and policies on academic integrity. For students, this means following the standards of academic honesty when writing assignments, collaborating with fellow students, and writing tests and exams. Ensure that the work you submit for grading represents your own honest efforts. Plagiarism—representing someone else’s work as your own or submitting work that you have previously submitted for marks in another class or program—is a serious offence that can result in sanctions. Speak to me or your TA for advice on anything that you find unclear. To learn more about how to cite and use source material appropriately and for other writing support, see the U of T writing support website at www.writing.utoronto.ca/. Consult the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters for a complete outline of the University’s policy and expectations. For more information, please see <http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/osai> and <http://academicintegrity.utoronto.ca/>

LEARNING DISABILITY OR ACCOMMODATION REQUIREMENT

Students with diverse learning styles and needs are welcome in this course. If you have an acute or ongoing disability issue or accommodation need, you should register with Accessibility Services (AS) (accessibility.utoronto.ca) at the beginning of the academic year. Without registration, you will not be able to verify your situation with your instructors, and instructors will not be advised about your accommodation needs. AS will assess your medical situation, develop an accommodation plan with you, and support you in requesting accommodation for your course work. Remember that the process of accommodation is private: AS will not share details of your condition with any instructor, and your instructors will not reveal that you are registered with AS.

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION

As a student at the University of Toronto, you are part of a diverse community that welcomes and includes students and faculty from a wide range of backgrounds, cultural traditions, and spiritual beliefs. For my part, I will make every reasonable effort to avoid scheduling tests, examinations, or other compulsory activities on religious holy days not captured by statutory holidays. Further to University Policy, if you anticipate being absent from class or missing a major course activity (like a test, or in-class assignment) due to a religious observance, please let me know as early in the course as possible, and with sufficient notice (at least two to three weeks), so that we can work together to make alternate arrangements.
