COURSE DESCRIPTION

The practical application of microeconomic theory to common legal problems: torts, contracts, property and crime, and the limitations of economic analysis. No previous familiarity with the law is assumed. (This is an economic analysis of legal issues, not a course in law.) Prerequisite: ECO200Y1/ECO204Y1/ECO206Y1. The Department has a clear policy on pre-requisites for courses which may be obtained at <https://www.economics.utoronto.ca/index.php/index/undergraduate/load/prerequisites>

QUERCUS:

This course uses the University's learning management system, Quercus, to post information about the course. This includes posting readings and other materials required to complete class activities and course assignments, as well as sharing important announcements and updates. The site is dynamic and new information and resources will be posted regularly as we move through the term, so please make it a habit to log in to the site on a regular, even daily, basis. To access the course website, go to the U of T Quercus log-in page at <https://q.utoronto.ca>. Once you have logged in to Quercus using your UTORid and password, you should see the link or "card" for ECO320H1, LEC 0101 (Economic Analysis of Law). You may need to scroll through other cards to find this. Click on the ECO320H1, LEC 0101 (Economic Analysis of Law) link to open our course area, view the latest announcements and access your course resources. There are Quercus help guides for students that you can access by clicking on the "?" icon in the left side column. SPECIAL NOTE ABOUT GRADES POSTED ONLINE: Please also note that any grades posted are for your information only, so you can view and track your progress through the course. No grades are considered official, including any posted in Quercus at any point in the term, until they have been formally approved and posted on ACORN at the end of the course. Please contact me as soon as possible if you think there is an error in any grade posted on Quercus.

REQUIRED TEXT:

Cooter and Ulen, Law & Economics, 6th ed., Addison-Wesley (Pearson), Toronto, Canada, 2011, ISBN: 978-0-13-25-4065 <http://scholarship.law.berkeley.edu/books/2/>

MARKING SCHEME:

Term Test 1 (Monday, October 21, 2019)	20%
Term Test 2 (Monday, November 18, 2019)	20%
Class Participation (Top Hat)	10%
Final Exam	50%

Students will be responsible for all the material presented at each lecture and tutorial. Students should be advised that much of the material covered at the lectures will be additional to the required readings and the power point slides. All of the lecture and tutorial material, slides and required readings is eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination.

TOPHAT:

We will be using the Top Hat (www.tophat.com) classroom response system in class, starting on Thursday, September 12, 2019. If you are using Top Hat in another course, you can simply add this course and don't need to buy an additional subscription. Lectures are discussion based and I like to hear from everyone. Technology is an efficient way to aggregate answers. You will be able to submit answers to in-class questions using Apple or Android smartphones and tablets, laptops, or through text message. You can visit the Top Hat Overview (<https://success.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide>) within the Top Hat Success Center which outlines how you will register for a Top Hat account, as well as providing a brief overview to get you up and running on the system.

An email invitation will be sent to you by email, but if you do not receive this email, you can register by simply visiting our course website: Unique Course URL Note: our Course Join Code is 391315.

Top Hat may require a paid subscription, and a full breakdown of all subscription options available can be found here: www.tophat.com/pricing. Should you require assistance with Top Hat at any time, due to the fact that they require specific user information to troubleshoot these issues, please contact their Support Team directly by way of email (support@tophat.com), the “in app” support button, or by calling 1-888-663-5491.

TUTORIALS:

The first tutorial will be on Monday, September 16, 2019. There will be a tutorial each Monday to the end of the course. Most tutorials will be a question and answer session for problems assigned for discussion in the prior week. The tutorials on Monday, October 21, 2019, Monday, November 18, 2019 and Monday, December 2, 2019 will be for the term tests at 11:10AM to 12:00PM.

READINGS:

Students will be responsible for the readings from the required Text and Articles unless expressly excluded by the Instructor. Many of the readings from the Text may not be covered in the limited time available for lectures. This does not mean these readings are unimportant or cannot be included in the term tests and final examination. All the lecture material, slides and required readings are eligible for inclusion in the term tests and final examination. The articles are obtainable from the U of T library website.

MISSED TERM TESTS:

One (1) Comprehensive Make Up test will be held on Monday, December 2, 2019. This test will cover the topics of both Tests 1 and 2, regardless the student missing either Test 1 or Test 2.

SPECIFIC MEDICAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If you become ill and it affects your ability to do your academic work, consult me right away. Normally, I will ask you for medical documentation in support of your specific medical circumstances. The University’s Verification of Student Illness or Injury (VOI) form is recommended because it indicates the impact and severity of the illness, while protecting your privacy about the details of the nature of the illness. You can submit a different form (like a letter from the doctor), as long as it is an original document, and it contains the same information as the VOI. For more information, please see <http://www.illnessverification.utoronto.ca/>. If you get a concussion, break your hand, or suffer some other acute injury, you should register with Accessibility Services as soon as possible.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONAL REASONS

There may be times when you are unable to complete course work on time due to non-medical reasons. If you have concerns, speak to me. It is also a very good idea to speak with an advisor in your College Registrar's office; they can support you in requesting extensions or accommodations, and importantly, connect you with other resources on campus for help with your situation.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students, faculty and staff are expected to follow the University's guidelines and policies on academic integrity. For students, this means following the standards of academic honesty when writing assignments, collaborating with fellow students, and writing tests and exams. Ensure that the work you submit for grading represents your own honest efforts. Plagiarism—representing someone else's work as your own or submitting work that you have previously submitted for marks in another class or program—is a serious offence that can result in sanctions. Speak to me or your TA for advice on anything that you find unclear. To learn more about how to cite and use source material appropriately and for other writing support, see the U of T writing support website at www.writing.utoronto.ca/. Consult the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters for a complete outline of the University's policy and expectations. For more information, please see <http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/osai> and <http://academicintegrity.utoronto.ca/>

LEARNING DISABILITY OR ACCOMMODATION REQUIREMENT

Students with diverse learning styles and needs are welcome in this course. If you have an acute or ongoing disability issue or accommodation need, you should register with Accessibility Services (AS) (accessibility.utoronto.ca) at the beginning of the academic year. Without registration, you will not be able to verify your situation with your instructors, and instructors will not be advised about your accommodation needs. AS will assess your medical situation, develop an accommodation plan with you, and support you in requesting accommodation for your course work. Remember that the process of accommodation is private: AS will not share details of your condition with any instructor, and your instructors will not reveal that you are registered with AS.

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION

As a student at the University of Toronto, you are part of a diverse community that welcomes and includes students and faculty from a wide range of backgrounds, cultural traditions, and spiritual beliefs. For my part, I will make every reasonable effort to avoid scheduling tests, examinations, or other compulsory activities on religious holy days not captured by statutory holidays. Further to University Policy, if you anticipate being absent from class or missing a major course activity (like a test, or in-class assignment) due to a religious observance, please let me know as early in the course as possible, and with sufficient notice (at least two to three weeks), so that we can work together to make alternate arrangements.
