WINTER TERM GRADUATE COURSE SCHEDULE

The Faculty of Arts and Science (FAS) has altered the schedule for graduate courses in the Winter term to keep them aligned with the St. George undergraduate schedule.

Classes will begin on January 11 and end on April 9. Monday, April 12 will be a “make-up Friday” for courses that would have met on April 2 (which is a holiday). Reading week will not be moved, and will still be February 15–19. The change in schedule applies to courses within the Faculty of Arts and Science; students taking courses outside of FAS should check with the relevant unit. SGS has not yet informed us whether there will be changes to course deadlines (such as add/drop dates).

Please also note that all Winter term courses in Economics will be conducted entirely online. I know that this is very disappointing for some of you, but I am told that provincial guidelines have left us with no flexibility.
